PETER GOTTSCHALL AND HIS DESCENDANTS

By Laura Cutshall*

Johann Philip Gottschall, who became known as Philip Cutshall as he moved westward, was born in or about 1737 to Johann Peter Gottschall and his wife, Anna Catharina Mohr, of Hempfield Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He was their last son, and was given fifty acres of land and two horses of his choice by his father's will proved 19 September 1788. Catherine Gottschall, Philip's step-mother, quit-claimed any dower interest she had in this fifty acres (Lancaster Co. Deeds NN:120). Although executed on 1 October 1788, the deed was not recorded until 7 October 1791, probably as Philip was preparing to move to nearby Cumberland County.

The records of Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, show that Johann Philip Gottschall was married to the widow Elizabeth Schantz on 26 April 1791. A few months later, they sold Philip's inherited fifty acres for £400 to John Graeff, a gunsmith from Cumberland County (Lancaster Co. Deeds NN:121). On the same day, 21 September 1791, Philip purchased 124 acres of Graeff's land, located in Allen Township (see Cumberland Co. Deeds M-1:535). Portions of the property were sold off over the ensuing decade, but it was on this land, in Cumberland County, that presumably all of Philip's children were born.

In May of 1803, Philip and Elizabeth sold their remaining land there (Cumberland Co. Deeds R-1:71) and moved to Venango County, Pennsylvania (1804 tax rolls, Sugar Creek Twp., p. 78). Philip acquired a tract of 400 acres "adjoining lands of William Johnston on the north, [and] French Creek on the south, known by the name of Seven Mile Spring Farm" (see VCo. Deeds A:239). This land was also claimed by one William Clements (Clemons/Clemmins, etc.), who brought an ejectment action, but agreed to sell Philip the land should his claim prevail (VCo. Deeds A:55, dated 30 July 1805). Clements won on appeal to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court (4 Yeates [Pa. 1806], 330), but lost the property at a sheriff's sale to his attorney, Patrick Farrelly of Meadville; Farrelly quitclaimed the land to Philip on 9 November 1811 (VCo. Deeds A:239). Although Philip purchased other tracts of land in Sugar Creek and French Creek townships (VCo. Sheriff's Deeds 1:13 [26 Oct. 1810], 344; Deeds C:353), Seven Mile Spring Farm is where the family lived while in Venango County.

Philip also in 1811 acquired tracts numbered 1446 and 1447 in the Seventh Donation District, in Crawford County (CCo. Deeds K-1:115; Treasurers Deeds 1:27). He and his wife were residing in Crawford County when they sold their Venango County property on 6 August 1819 (VCo. Deeds C:310). They evidently had moved there some time previously, as undrawn Tract 1450 was surveyed in 1818 "in pursuance of Philip Cutshall[s] improvement & actual resident settlement" (CCo. Surveyor's Dk. 149; see also Ct.CP #7 May Term 1818).

* The writer wishes to thank Merle Cutshall Rhoades, Ruth Ream Moorhead, Chester Cutshall, and the family of Birdena Orr Houston for their invaluable help and generous sharing of family data. Thanks also to Thomas L. Yoset for researching Crawford and Venango county records, and for his editorial logic and expertise in presenting the Cutshall/Cutshall family history in scholarly fashion.

Philip was among the earliest settlers of what became Randolph Township. The History of Crawford County, Pennsylvania (Chicago, 1885), 598, recounts:

He was a Pennsylvania German, and came with his sons, George, Jacob and John, from his home in Cumberland County. The date of their arrival was 1814. Philip secured a farm on Tract 1450, afterward the home of his son Jacob; George on Tract 1447, and John on Tract 1422, all in the northern part of the township.

Philip purchased Tract 1422 in 1821 (CCo. Deeds K-1:115), and he and Elizabeth quitclaimed Tract 1446 on 19 November 1827 (CCo. Deeds L-1:399). Philip had other land transactions in the county (see Deeds D-1:15 [Meadville]; L-1:231 [Fairfield Twp.]), but at the time of his death in 1829 owned only tracts 1447 and 1422. He resided on Tract 1450, but never obtained the patent.

The will of Philip Cutshall of Randolph Township, dated 31 May 1829 and probated 2 June 1830, gave his wife Elizabeth a life estate in all his property, directing that "previous to her decease [she] shall make equal distribution of my said estate to my children as near as may be[,] that is among all my children"; Rufus Ashley and James Wyman, Jr. were witnesses (CCo. Wills A: 263 [original missing]). Elizabeth died in 1836 "by the Visitation of God in A Natural Way," according to the finding of a coroner's inquest (CCo. Ct.QS Feb. Session 1836; see App. Dk. 12:197), apparently without having made any formal partition of her husband's land. Her only recorded deed is for the sale of Tract 1450 on 7 May 1834, as Philip's executor (CCo. Deeds P-1:543). Jacob Cutshall had evidently been given this tract, for he joined with her in the conveyance. Other deeds confirm the distribution of Tract 1447 to George and Tract 1422 to John (CCo. Deeds U-2:660; A-3:577, 643; F-2:126; I-2:210). That these three were Philip's sons is further substantiated by a biographical account of a grandson, George W. Cutshall, published in the 1885 county history, page 930:

Philip Cutshall, was born in Pennsylvania in 1767; and his wife Elizabeth was born in 1760. In 1803 they came from Cumberland County to Venango County, settling about six miles west of Franklin. They had three sons: John, Jacob and George, and one daughter—Nancy. The sons, on arriving at maturity, were among the early settlers of this [Randolph] township, locating in 1814, their parents coming subsequently. Their father died in 1829, their mother in 1836.

A sketch of Philip D. Cutshall, another grandson, in the History of Venango County, Pennsylvania (Chicago, 1890), hereafter 1890 VCo. Hist., 1062, notes that "his grandfather, Philip Cutshall, was born in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, in 1767, and came from Cumberland to Venango county in 1803, settling six miles west of Franklin. Subsequently he moved to Crawford county."

6 JOHANN PHILIP² GOTTSCHALL (*Peter*¹), later known as Philip Cutshall, b. Lancaster Co., Pa., in or about 1767; d. bet. 31 May 1829 (date of will) and 2 June 1830 (proved), prob. in Randolph Twp., Crawford Co., Pa.; m. - 8 i JOHN³, b. about 1792, prob. Cumberland Co.
- 9 ii JACOB, b. about 1796, prob. Cumberland Co.
- 10 iii GEORGE, b. Cumberland Co. 29 April 1799

THIRD GENERATION

8 JOHN³ CUTSHALL (*Philip*², *Peter*¹), b. about 1792 (aged 68 in 1860 U.S. census, Randolph Twp., p. 676); d. 19 Dec. 1862 (CCo. O.Ct. #37 Nov. Term 1864; Bible rec.), bur. poss. Union Cem. in an unmarked grave (Adelaide M. Courtney & Ancinohie Smith Corey, comps., "Index to Burials in the Union Cemetery, Guys Mills" [ms., CCo. Hist. Soc., 1959], hereafter Union Cem. Index, 14).

He m. (1) 27 April 1816, and div. 15 Aug. 1838, EMALINE LIVERMORE (CCo. Ct.CP #5 Feb. Term 1838), known as Emily or Milly, who in 1850 was living in Mead Twp., aged 54 (U.S. census, p. 50, Henry Steinbrook household). Emily is identified as a daughter of Jeremiah Livermore, and a native of Mercer County, in a biographical sketch of her son G. C. Cutshall (1890 VCo. Hist., 1033).

John m. (2) prob. by 1850, and at least by March 1852 (CCo. Deeds F-2:126), MARY —, b. about 1826 (deposition of Mary Cutshall taken 11 May 1863, at Ct.CP #79 Nov. Term 1862, transcribed by Thomas L. Yoset, "Nineteenth Century Divorce in Crawford County, Pennsylvania" [unpub. ms., 1993]; 1850 U.S. Census, Randolph Twp., p. 297). Mary remarried James Hyam on 9 April 1867, prob. at Cleveland, Ohio, where she was residing in 1874 (CCo. O.Ct. #36 Jan. Term 1874).

John and Emaline moved from Venango to Crawford County by 1820 (U.S. census, Mead Twp., p. 50), presumably onto Tract 1422. They parted soon after the birth of a son Henry in 1831. Readers of the Meadville Courier of 8 July 1834 were informed of their separation with the following "Caution":

Whereas my wife Emily has left my bed and board without any just cause or provocation, this is to forewarn all persons from harboring or trusting her on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting after this date. JOHN CUTSHALL.

Emily was residing with Henry Stainbrook of Mead Township, who had married her sister, Polly Livermore, in Columbiana County, Ohio, on 6 June 1815 (Columbiana Co. Marr. 1:206 [ref. courtesy of Annette L. Lynch]). Polly had died by 1830 (U.S. census, p. 13), leaving a family of seven children, and perhaps the needs of her motherless nieces and nephews prompted Emily to "abandon" her husband. Charges and counter-charges of all sorts of immoral or outrageous behavior were leveled by John and Emily against one another (CCo. Ct.QS April Session 1835, John Cutshall and "Amelia" Cutshall, defendants). John filed for divorce 14 November 1837 on the grounds of adultery and desertion for a period of four years, and was granted his request the following August (CCo. App. Dk. 14:3).

Another "Caution" printed in the Meadville Courier of 7 February 1837 suggests that the rift between John and Emily caused their children to take sides:

ALL persons are hereby cautioned against harboring or trusting on my account my sons, John and George Cutshall, who absconded from me some time ago, as I will pay no debts of their contracting after this date. JOHN CUTSHALL. Randolph township....

Additional family history—and the only record of John's children Abraham and Emaline—is found in a notice appearing in the Crawford Statesman, and Independent Press of 27 October 1838, shortly after the divorce was finalized:

THE Subscriber wants information respecting a woman named Elizabeth Jones, who left his house in Randolph township, Crawford County, Pa., on the 11th of July last, taking with her his daughter Emaline, aged nine years. Mrs. Jones said when she left she was going to Pittsburg to see some friends and would be back in a short time. She is a woman of middle size, fair hair—cut off short, wore a walnut colored flannel shawl, chews tobacco, snuffs, and is given to take too much liquor, and is about 26 or 27 years of age. Both she and the little child wore light calico dresses. She said that she came from Michigan, that her husband, John Jones, was a blacksmith and died there, and left some property—that she has friend or relatives near Mercer, Pa., also about Pittsburgh, and Washington city. The little girl is subject to the phthistic [pigeon breast] and, by examining her breast-bone will be found to be fuller than common. I am informed that the woman calls the child her own, it would be well, therefore, if any person of the above description should be found to ask the child whether her father's name is not John Cutchall—her brothers' and sister's names are John, George, William, Philip and Betsey—her brother Abraham was killed in the barn with a hay-hook—some questions might be put to her about him and them. Let her answer whether she knows Mrs. Murray, Granny Radle, Guy's, Child's or Charlotte Crouch—these are our neighbors and the latter was her school-mistress. Any information in regard to her will be thankfully received by a distressed father. JOHN CUTCHALL. Randolph, Crawford co. Pa., Oct. 20, 1838.

John remarried sometime after 1845 and fathered at least four more children before his death in December 1862. In his will, he left his sixty-five acre farm in Randolph Township, and all his personal property, to his "dear wife" Mary, who was also designated as executrix. Anything remaining after her death or remarriage was to be divided equally between sons Godlove and John H. Cutshall. His son John Cutshall, daughter Betsey "Reckord," and George C., William P., Philip C., Henry, Marelda, and Emma Jane Cutshall each received one dollar (Reg. Dk. 2:426; Wills C:416, dated 19 Aug. 1862 and proved 29 Dec. 1862).

Philip C. Cutshall was subsequently appointed guardian of Ashabel G., James H., Marelda, and Emma Jane Cutshall on the petition of their mother, Mary Cutshall (O.Ct. Dk. F:263, #37 Nov. Term 1864). In 1874, A. G. Cutshall filed exceptions to Philip's guardianship account, claiming certain irregularities (O.Ct. Dk. J:109). The following is among the depositions taken during the audit:

Mary Hyam, being duly sworn, says John Cutshall, the decedent, was my former husband. He died December 19, 1862. I was decedent's second wife. At the time of his death he had nine children living. Five by his first wife as follows[:] Betsy Record, George C. Cutshall, William P., Philip C., and Henry Cutshall, and four by deponent as follows, Ashabel Godlove, James H. Cutshall, Marilda Cutshall and Emma Jane Cutshall. At the time of my husband's death, his son Henry was about 30 years of age. My children were from one and a half to ten years of age at the time of their fathers death. I was married to my husband James Hyam April 9th 1867. Philip C. Cutshall, the accountant, is a son of John Cutshall, deceased[,] and half brother of his wards....

Jacob's history is told in a biography of his only son (1890 VCo. Hist., 1062):

Jacob Cutshall was seven years old when the family located in Venango county, moved with them to Crawford, where he resided until 1830, and in that year located where his son, Philip D., now resides in Canal township. Here he died on the 29th of May, 1872, at the age of seventy-two years, dying as he had lived in the faith of the Methodist Episcopal church. His wife, Sarah, was the daughter of Christian Sutley, an early settler of Canal township and soldier of 1812. She died April 21, 1887, aged seventy-three. By a previous marriage with William Oliphant, Mrs. Cutshall had one child, Elizabeth, now the wife of A. O. Burns of Canal township.

In his will, dated 15 January 1864 and proved 24 June 1867, Jacob Cutshall of Canal Township named wife Sarah, son Philip, and daughter Esther, also known as Hattie, now married to John Ray (VCo. Wills 4:93; see VCo. Deeds 108:312).

George Cutshall apparently settled Tract 1447, which had been purchased by his father; he also obtained adjacent tracts 1424 and 1448, each of 200 acres (see CCo. Treasurers Deeds 2:137, where he redeemed Tract 1424 in 1826). According to a biography of his son eldest son, Jeremiah (1885 CCo. Hist., 875-76),

George, with his brother Jacob [sic; should be John], came from Cumberland County, Penn., to Randolph Township, this county, in 1814, and settled in the northern part of that township, both clearing large farms, which are now owned by their descendants. ... [George] remained in Randolph Township up to 1880, when he removed to Lorain County, Ohio, and died there in 1881, at the age of seventy-six years.

His son George W. Cutshall's sketch in the same history (p. 930) tells that George, the father of our subject, was born in Cumberland County, Penn., April 29, 1799, and was four years old when brought to Venango County, where he grew to maturity, undergoing the privations of pioneer life. In 1823 he married Jane Sterling, and by this union they had thirteen children: ... Mr. Cutshall settled on the place where his son George now resides, and was the owner of 400 or 500 acres, which now constitute several farms. Here Mr. Cutshall remained the greater portion of his life and here he raised his family. A short time prior to his death, in company with his wife, he visited his daughter in Lorain County, Ohio, and eventually purchased property there, where he died in March, 1876, his widow in April, 1883.

ZION CHURCH COMMUNICANTS AND CONFIRMATIONS

By Thomas L. Yoset

The Taufbüch der oberen Fränchcreeker Gemeinde (Baptismal Book of the Upper French Creek Congregation), following the baptisms (see page 23 above), contains communion lists and, beginning in 1859, tabular "Communion Registers." A few confirmation lists (showing acceptance into full membership in the Zion Church) are also preserved. The earliest records are transcribed here, numbered as in the Taufbüch, and with names spelled as written.

HOLLAND LAND COMPANY SALES IN THE TITUSVILLE AREA

By Joan Search Hanson, C.G., and Thomas L. Yoset

The Holland Land Company, in addition to the warrants it held to tracts in the vicinity of Meadville (see page 53 above), claimed thousands of acres in and around what became Titusville. Most or all of these were attached to District Number 7, which was initially under the jurisdiction of state Deputy Surveyor Alexander McDowell, and known as McDowell's District. Sixty-six tracts encircling Titusville were separately numbered and segregated in Company ledgers. A history of Oil Creek Township explains (1885 CCo. Hist., 580):

The township is composed wholly of 400 acre tracts. Those in the western, northern and eastern parts were taken up by the Holland Land Company. Maj. Roger Alden was the agent and it is said that in having the tracts surveyed he reserved sixty-six tracts for himself, including those in the central and southern portions of Oil Creek Township. Settlers, however, arrived and took possession of the tracts, regardless of his claims. Compromises were often effected between Alden and the occupant, but the latter not uncommonly retained the land by virtue of his settlement.

The microfilmed ledgers, entitled "Register of buyers, purchase price and surface area of lots in West Alleghany [sic], 1796-1802," include District 7 at Item 624 on reels #137 and #138 (both donated by Mrs. Hanson); the sixty-six tracts are part of Item 625 on reel #138. These are reproduced here in the same format used before, with italicized data taken from the county history and deeds.

1810 U.S. CENSUS

By Thomas L. Yoset

The federal census taken in 1810 enumerated 6,176 inhabitants in Crawford County in 985 households. The name of only the head of each household was recorded. Free white household members were grouped by sex and then by age. The five age categories were as follows: under ten; ten through fifteen; sixteen through twenty-five; twenty-six through forty-four; and forty-five or over—the same as in the previous census (see page 46). Two additional columns counted other free persons in the household (excluding untaxed Indians) and slaves. Column totals are shown in the chart below, with those from the 1800 census given for comparison. Asterisks indicate discrepancies from the official tally.¹

THE 1848 COUNTY MAP

By Thomas L. Yoset

The county map reproduced in part on the following two pages was prepared in 1848 by C. E. Weaver to promote the sale of lands held by local speculators. The map is captioned:

The Subscribers offer for Sale on a credit of from four to eight years, upwards of 50,000 acres of Land in Crawford and the adjoining Counties, Pennsylvania. These lands embrace almost every variety of Soil and location, many of the tracts are good grain lands and the residue from their natural adaptation to Grass are admirably suited for Stock, Dairy, or Sheep Farms. No better watered country is to be found, there being scarce 100 acres without living Springs of pure water. A number of the tracts abound in valuable Timber with good Mill Sites on durable Streams to convert it into Lumber. Besides the navigation of French Creek or the Venango River, the Allegheny and its tributaries, the Canal is completed to the Ohio, and to the Harbor at Erie thus affording a choice of Markets. The soil is generally fertile and rolling but not too hilly. The population is intelligent and enterprising [sic]: it is now about 40000, and is rapidly increasing. From the advantages this Country possesses of easy access to Market from its Canals, Roads, and Bridges and from its Schools, Colleges, and Churches it holds out great inducements to emigrants over an entirely New Country and it would be at least worth their while to come and see it and judge for themselves before moving to the far West and encountering the privations and diseases incident to that climate.

For further particulars address (post paid) J Stuart Riddle, William Thorp, Horace Cullum, William Reynolds, John Reynolds, John Dick, David Dick

These speculators, in the spring of 1849, organized the Meadville, Allegheny & Brokenstraw Plank Road Company to improve access to their lands in the eastern part of the county (see 1885 CCo. Hist., 269, re the "plank road mania").

Three major changes had been made in the political boundaries of the county since publication of the 1839 map (see page 35, above):

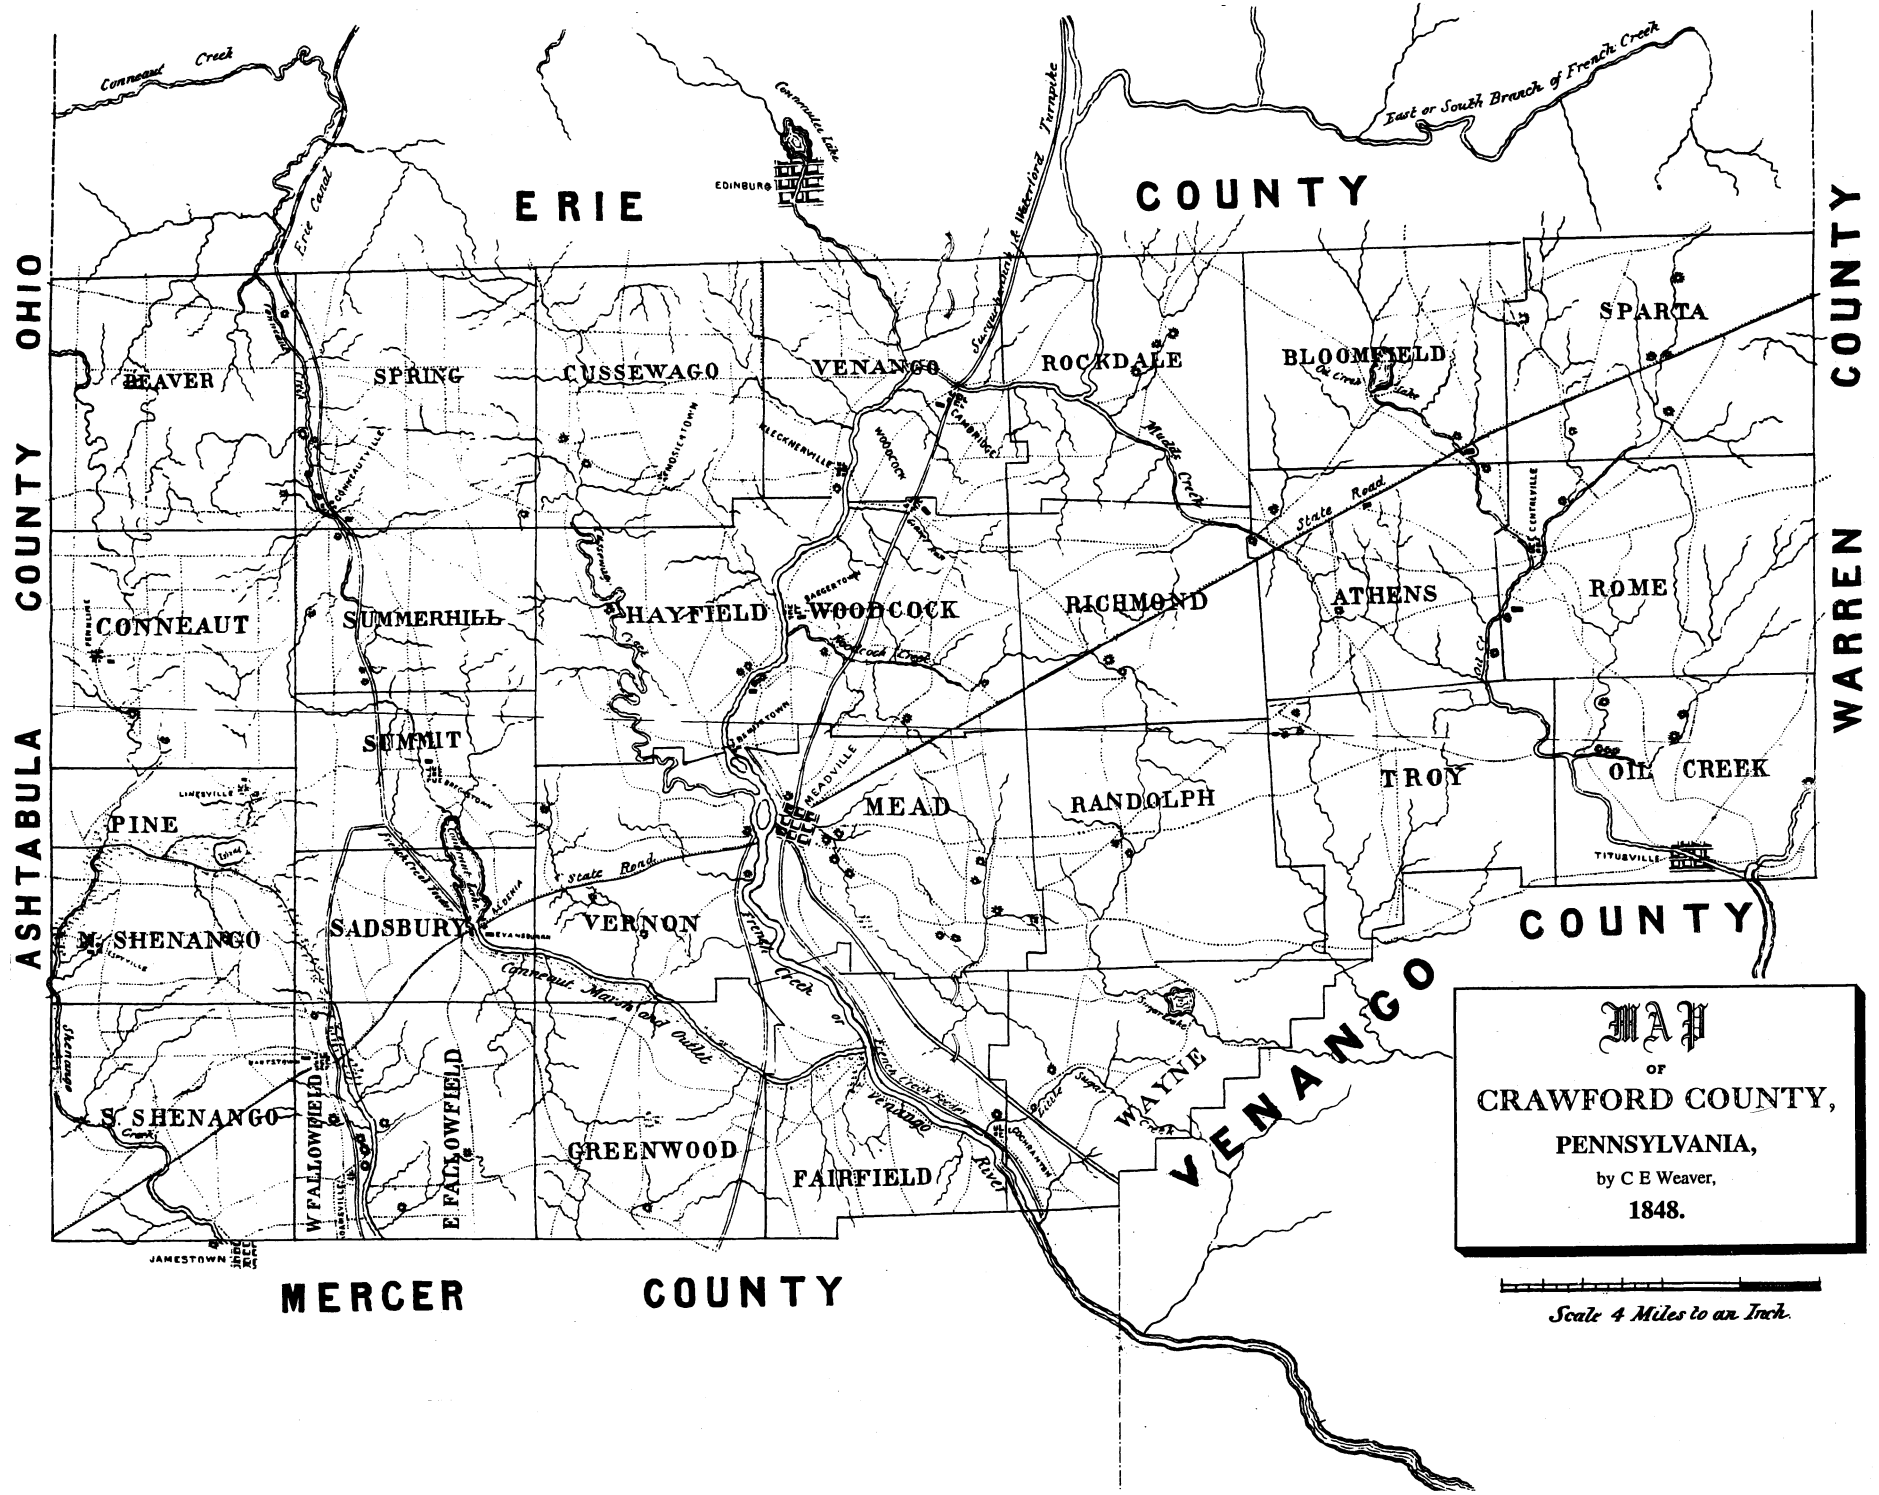

- 1) Summit Township was formed by joining the three southern ranges of tracts from Summerhill Township with the three northern ranges of tracts from Sadsbury Township (1843 Pa. Laws 51);
- 2) Fallowfield Township was divided along Crooked Creek into East and West Fallowfield townships (1844 Pa. Laws 18); and
- 3) North Shenango Township north of Shenango Creek became Pine Township (1846 Pa. Laws 96).

The 1848 map is applicable to the census of 1850, except for a westward shift in the border line between Spring and Beaver townships (1847 Pa. Laws 421), and the reattachment of part of Pine Township to North Shenango (1850 Pa. Laws 632).

Prints of this map, measuring 15" x 18", were produced by the lithographic process in New York City; several copies are on file at the library of the Crawford County Historical Society. (A reproduction sponsored by that Society in 1982 is now out of print.) The scale here is the same as in the original, i.e.,

1 inch = 4 miles.

From his strange conduct previous to committing the act he is supposed to have been insane. He was apparently about 30 years of age. An inquest was held and a verdict given in accordance with such facts as could be ascertained. No person in the neighborhood knew him. It is supposed that he was on his way to this place seeking employment on the railraad. He was removed from the creek during the day some distance below Cambridge, and he stated that he came from New York and was looking in the water for a boy that was drowned, according to his incoherent statements, from one of the bridges in that city (New York). After being brought back to town he walked about a short time and was seen to go to the creek and jump in. His body was recovered in a few minutes, but all efforts to resuscitate him proved unavailing."

Kingsland [signed W. W. Kingsland], George S. Stewart, R. D. Fletcher, Charles Kellogg and H. B. Ostrom, who find "that the above deceased person came to his death from severe injuries caused by the collision [described in the above inquest] ... and further that the evidence shews that the President and directors of said Oil Creek Rail road, are criminally liable for the killing of the said E. Steel Greene, by refusing and neglecting to furnish reasonable and ordinary accomodation for passsengers travelling over said road, and particularly as in evidence shewn that said E. Steel Green was compelled to stand on the platform of a passenger car, where he was crushed and injured and came to his death, by the collision as before described, which would not have happened but for the refusal, and neglect of the said President and Directors of said Oil Creek Railroad aforesaid, to comply with the requisitions for reasonable and ordinary accomodation made by the conductors and superintendent of the said Oil Creek Railroad, at different times, for the passengers travelling over said road, and we the Jury aforesaid therefore request the Coroner to issue his warrant for the appearance and trial of said Joseph Funk and Patrick Carey, together with the President, Directors and Managers of the said Oil Creek Railraod, who by their culpable negligence as proved by the evidence have caused the death of said E. Steel Green. We further find from the evidence, facts, and information which have come before this Jury, That the equipment of the Oil Creek Railroad, its insufficient passenger accomodation, inability to bring the passenger cars and baggage to a platform, want of facilities for loading or unloading freight, creates unnecessary risk [of?] loss of live, and property, all of which evils a reasonable outlay would remedy, and be the not only true economy, but tend to save live and limb, as well as property." Inquest held at the store of Ephraim Ralph of Titusville 13 June 1866 re Mary Bernstein [or Bernstien or Bernstine], "daughter of H. Bernstein, of said city of Titusville, then and there lying dead," before Simon Strouse, J.P., with jurors Abraham Markson, Joseph Burger, H. W. Sherman [signed H W Shearna-], W. J Stevens, Ephraim Ralph [signed E.

Ralph], Dr. Geo J Luce, and Dr. Theodore Young, attending physician: "Albert A Stackpole being sworn, testified as follows. I did not see when the child fell into the water, she fell between the reach of the Mill[,] a timber is across there, about 10 inches square -fo-[?] not for to walk on it and about 5 feet above the mouth of the spout, which is about 6 feet long to the wheel, first I saw her, I was standing on the walk on Franklin Str. fishing. I gave than the alarm and Mr Hancox stopped her between 3 & 4 rods below the bridge. I noticed when she first came out of the mill that a whole was on her back, and there was no life in her. Distance from the wheel where I first saw her, is about 30 feet. [¶] Charles Wickert, being sworn testified as follows: About an hour ago I was walking down the Franklin Str. I saw some people standing below the millrace bridge. I went amongst the crowd and saw Mr Allen and another man had this little girl on their arms. I dont know the other man. I took the other man's place and assisted Mr Allen to carry her in Ralph's Store, she was perfectly lifeless when I first saw her. [¶] A. G. Stackpole being sworn testified as follows: I am acquainted with the little girl she has been in the habit of playing around the millrace, she has been repeedly warned not to come around the millrace. She has been told often it was dangerous. I did not see her today. My impression is the bucket struck her, it would kill her instantly, otherwise she might live long enough to be drowned. The wound caused in her back I think was caused by the corner of the bucket striking her as she entered the wheel, the second wound caused by the next bucket following. The wheel is composed of a ironshaft and wooden buckets. [¶] D^r Theodor Young being sworn and testified as follows: I saw the little girl at Herman Burn's Brick Store, carried by several men. I came across the Street and ordered her to be taken in the first house, it was carried into Mr Ralph's Paint Store. I tried first every means known to us and within reach to restore her, when on turning her I discovered a large wound on her back also on the knee. I think that her life was entirely extinct when I first saw her. My impression is that she was killed by injures inflicted by the wheel attached to the mill. [¶] Irvin Hancox, being sworn, testified as follows: I saw the little girl a few feet above she was taken out of the water about three rods below the bridge of the millrace. I took her out with the assistance of a man to me unknown. I think she was entirely dead when I first saw her. [¶] Franklin Breed, being sworn, testified as follows: The last I saw of the little girl was about an hour and a half or two hours before it happened. She was standing on the length of the race about two rods above the mill. [¶] It so happened, that accidentally, casually and by misfortune, she, the said Mary Bernstein, daughter of H. Bernstein of the City of Titusville, fell in the water of a millrace belonging to A. G. Stackpole and Camp of said City of Titusville, then and there suffocated and drowned, of which said suffocation and drowning she the said Mary Bernstein, then and there instantly died. [¶] And so the Jurors ... retired and brought in the verdict read by their forman D^r Geo J Luce, as follows: accidental death caused by injures inflicted by the water wheel under the mill on Franklin Street. The Jury would also recommend that the floor be covered as they deem it very unsafe and dangerous as it now is." Approved 13 Nov. 1866.

Bill of costs shows T. B. Lashell, MD, $10 for examining body. "The Court approve the within bill except the pay of Jurors" 17 Sept. 1869; certified to commissioners 18 Sept. 1869.

Crawford Democrat 18 Sept. 1869, p. 3, col. 2: "Probable Murder. [¶] Adam King was an employee of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway company. He resided with his family on the hill immediately west of this city. On Thursday of last week King received his money from the railroad, amounting to about $60. During the afternoon of Thursday he became intoxicated, and remained in that condition until midnight, when he started from a drinking establishment on Dock street for his home. This was late on Thursday night or early Friday morning—there being some discrepancy in the evidence as to the precise hour at which King left his companions. It is rumored that King expressed a fear about passing over the covered bridge which spans the creek at the foot of Dock street. But, be that as it may, it appears the poor man had some reason to entertain fears, for he never saw his family after that fatal afternoon of Thursday. Nothing was seen of King on Friday and Saturday; but on Sabbath morning Mr. T. Patton discovered the body of a man stranded on a sand bar in French creek about two miles south of this place, which was readily identified as that of the missing King. An inquest was held, and the verdict thereof expressed a belief that the deceased had been murdered. This opinion was based upon the following facts, viz: [¶] 1. Two severe blows had been inflicted upon the head of the deceased—one on the forehead and the other on the top of the skull—neither of which, in the opinion of examining physician, could have occurred from floating in the water. [¶] 2. No water was found in the lungs of the deceased—a positive proof that respiration could not take place after the body was thrown into the creek. [¶] 3. Spots of blood were found on the bridge, the third day after the disappearance of King, over which he had necessarily to pass on his way home. [¶] 4. No money was found upon the person of the deceased. [¶] In conformity with the rendering of the inquest our City Council offer a reward of $500—and we understand the County Commissioners will offer a similar sum—for information that will lead to the identification and conviction of the murderer or murderers of Adam King." [Note: no indictment was found in the county criminal court papers.]

THE 1839 COUNTY MAP

- p. 35: The Crawford Statesman, & Independent Press of 3 August 1839, at page 3, carried an editorial "Caution" regarding the "numerous errors and omissions" in the 1839 map, "said to have been drawn by O. Trowbridge," claiming that:

Parts of some townships might possibly represent counties in the moon, but as sections of Crawford county they certainly are complete misrepresentations; but, in short, the whole thing itself is little less than a mass of errors and omissions, stuck together with paste, and daubed over with a little paint ... I am prepared to prove the thing called 'a map of Crawford county' incorrect not only in one place but in every township throughout the county.
